

Please reject NAB's petition 04-160. I pay for XM Radio, I do not believe that it should be regulated by the FCC. I listen to XM Radio for entertainment and the valuable information it provides me with its variety of talk shows and music. XM Radio is not a public service, one must pay in order to receive service. It should not be regulated since we are paying for the content of the service.